1980 AAASS CONVENTION

(792) The 1980 Annual Convention of AAASS will be held at the Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on October 29 - November 1, 1980. The 1980 Program Committee invites suggestions for papers, panels, special meetings and other program-related activities. For prompt consideration, it is highly recommended that complete proposals for panels, with the names of all the participants and the titles of the papers, be submitted. The committee will be guided in its work by the following considerations: (1) The annual meetings belong to the association's membership; the program should reflect the membership's interests. The committee will, in addition, seek out topics and scholars which it feels deserve to be brought to the attention of the profession. (2) Both Russia/Soviet Union and Eastern Europe (the latter broadly defined) are the object of our study. The committee will make every effort to duly reflect the membership's varied interests in this matter. (3) A special effort will be made to present panels that hold out the promise of contributing original ideas, bold syntheses of existing knowledge, and innovative methodological approaches to concrete issues. As always, every effort will be made to encourage cross-national and inter-disciplinary panels and under-represented fields. (4) Participants in the 1980 program should be AAASS members and registered at the 1980 convention.

Proposals and suggestions for the program should be sent by November 30, 1979 directly to members of the committee presiding over disciplinary areas, or to the committee chairman, Alvin Z. Rubinstein, at the addresses listed below:

HUMANITIES: Literature, Language, Linguistics, Art, and Philosophy. Elliott D. Mossman, University of Pennsylvania, 112 Logan Hall, Philadelphia, PA 19104.

SUMMER STUDENT RESEARCH INTERSHIPS

(797) Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty, Inc. has announced the second year of its Summer Student Research Internship Program in the fields of Soviet Area and East European Research (7 awards) and Audience and Opinion Research - Eastern Europe (one award). The internships, in Munich, Germany, can cover any eight-week period between June 9 and September 12, 1980. Deadline for receipt of applications is February 1, 1980.

The program is designed to provide students maximum exposure to the personal and archival resources of RFE/RL, which are unique in their respective fields. An internship entails a full-time research undertaking, with a view towards producing a paper publishable by the Radio. (If a candidate has relevant native language skills, the possibility exists of some programming work. But research remains the principal goal.)

For further information, contact Mr. Richard Wiest, Training Coordinator, Personnel Department, RFE/RL at either of the following addresses: (1) 1201 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, or (2) Oettingenstrasse 67, D-8000 Munich 22, West Germany.

SUMMER ARCHEOLOGICAL FIELD SCHOOL IN POLAND

(798) Adam Mickiewicz University of Poznan announces its intention to inaugurate a Summer Archeological Field School in Poland for American Archeological students. Duration of the field school will be approximately 8 weeks. Polish language competency is not required. The purposes of this Field School are: to provide U.S. students with experience in the application of archeological field techniques, to provide familiarization with the archeological resources of Poland (including the early Medieval Period, up to 900 A.D.), and to provide familiarization with the theoretical and technical problems of Polish archeology. By extension, the course will provide a basic understanding of the broad outlines of the prehistory of Europe, as most of the major archeological cultures of European prehistory had an impact on the prehistory of Poland, and are represented there. The program will take place from mid-June to mid-August, with exact dates to be determined later.

Upper division undergraduate or graduate majors in archeology (trained either in departments of anthropology or fine arts) and majors in ancient and medieval history are eligible to apply. Cost is expected to approximate $1,800 per student, including airfare, meals, university fees, and accommodations in Poland.

For further information, contact Dr. Robert C. Suggs, Lawrence Johnson & Associates, Inc., 4545 42nd Street, N.W., Suite 103, Washington, D.C. 20016; Tel. (202) 537-6900.

FORD FOUNDATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

(799) The Ford Foundation has announced the second round of a fellowship program in the combined fields of International Security - Arms Control and Soviet-East European Area Studies. Graduate degree and post-doctoral candidates are invited to submit applications for consideration in this program. Application submission deadline is January 1, 1980.
